FALLING FIG LEAVES

The ECI's feeble defence against the mounting charges of voting fraud indicates culpability more than clean hands

COVER STORY

What a fall

10/ If the Election Commission of India, once a venerable institution, finds its image and reputation sullied, it has only itself to blame. Its opacity, its refusal to share even basic data, and its readiness to bend rules in favour of the ruling dispensation strike at the very root of constitutional democracy.
