ONCE UPON A TIME...

Children often tell little lies and face small punishments, which are soon forgotten. But not for Pinocchio! His punishment for lying—his nose growing longer—stays in the hearts of children everywhere. The story of Pinocchio, the mischievous wooden puppet, remains unforgettable, thanks to Carlo Collodi's classic novel.

There are many such timeless tales that children around the world cherish. Stories like the Panchatantra, and Aesop's Fables transport young minds into worlds of fantasy and imagination.

In this issue of Tell Me Why, we explore the enchanting world of children's literature. Happy reading!
