

Reader's Digest

NOVEMBER 2025

₹125

STAYING AHEAD OF SUPERBUGS

UP CLOSE

Jacinda Ardern
on the Power of Kindness

PAGE 18

INSPIRATION

For the Love of Good Neighbours

PAGE 46

TRAVEL

How Mexico
Celebrates Life on the Day of the Dead

PAGE 84

PAGE 36

BETTER LIVING

Make the Most of
Your Food

PAGE 22

WHO KNEW?

Tattoo Regrets:
What Were They
(Th)inking?

PAGE 58

CONTENTS

Features

36

COVER STORY

STAYING AHEAD OF SUPERBUGS

Infectious bacteria are becoming harder to treat with antibiotics, putting millions at risk.

BY MELISSA GREER

46

INSPIRATION

Great Neighbours are Rare

For 35 years Walter was one—and I don't know what I'll do without him.

BY SHIRLEY PHILLIPS

50

DRAMA IN REAL LIFE

The Race to Save Matilda

The hiker was wedged upside down between two boulders. How could rescuers pull her free?

BY HELEN SIGNY

84

58

WHO KNEW?

What Were You Inking?!?

Not everyone loves their tattoos 20 years (or even 20 minutes later).

BY LENORE SKENAZY

68

TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Crafted in Kolhapur

An exploration of Kolhapur's traditional handicrafts industry.

BY VEIDEHI GITE

74

NATURE

The Great Forest

Hiking through Europe's primeval forests reveals the beauty of this region.

BY DIANA LAARZ

84

TRAVEL

Mexico's Day of the Dead

Step into a country where life and death meet in parades, altars, flavours and flowers—each region offering its tribute to the departed.

90

PHOTO FEATURE

The Unquiet Streets: Rediscovering Bombay's Years of Civil Disobedience

An enigmatic photo album offers a remarkable visual record of the Civil Disobedience Movement in Bombay.

FROM THE BOOK PHOTOGRAPHING CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE: BOMBAY 1930–1931

COVER PHOTOGRAPH: Shutterstock