

Reader's Digest

SEPTEMBER 2025

₹125

A CALL FOR KINDNESS

True Stories from our Readers

PAGE 84

HEALTH

A New Treatment for Brain Cancer

PAGE 96

NATURE

Yes, Animals Think, Feel and Grieve Like Us

PAGE 128

REVIEW

Arundhati Roy: A Legacy of Defiance

PAGE 144

TRAVEL

Syros: Greece's Gift to the World

PAGE 136

INTERVIEW

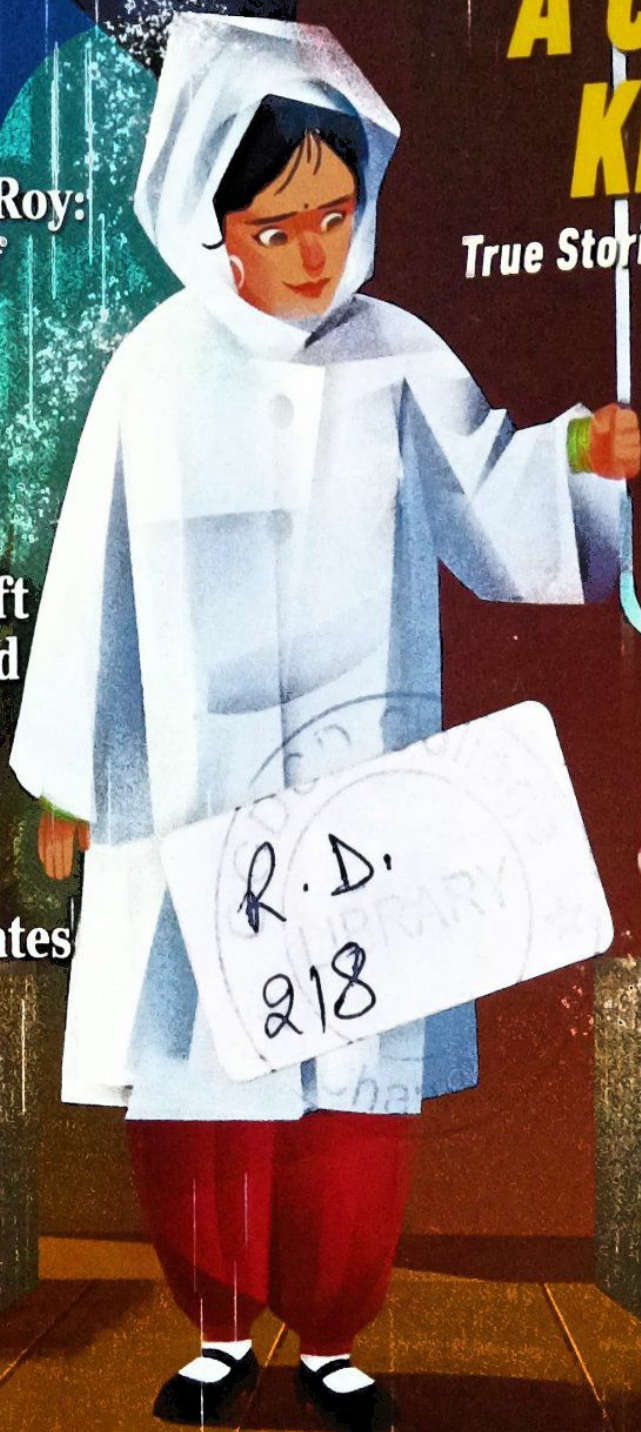

Up Close with Bill Gates

PAGE 20

BETTER LIVING

To-Do List Got You Down?

PAGE 28

CONTENTS

Features

84

COVER STORY

A CALL FOR KINDNESS

What does it mean to live with daya—kindness—as both duty and grace in today's conflicted world?

BY SUMANA ROY

TO MY UNKNOWN BENEFACTOR

True stories of strangers stepping up to offer aid.

BY RD READERS

96

HEALTH

Good News About Brain Cancer

An experimental new treatment makes tumours melt away.

BY CHRISTOPHER COX

106

DEPARTMENT OF WIT

Parenting is a Joke!

So let's all take some time to laugh at our kids.

BY ANDY SIMMONS

110

INSPIRATION

Words for Everyone

How Colombian street writers help people organize their lives.

BY VIKTORIA SPINRAD

118

DRAMA IN REAL LIFE

Adrift on an Endless Sea

When the current swept a couple far from their boat, all they had was each other.

BY NICK HUNE-BROWN

128

NATURE

What Do Animals Feel?

It's not only humans who feel empathy, sadness and joy.

BY YUDHIJIT BHATTACHARJEE

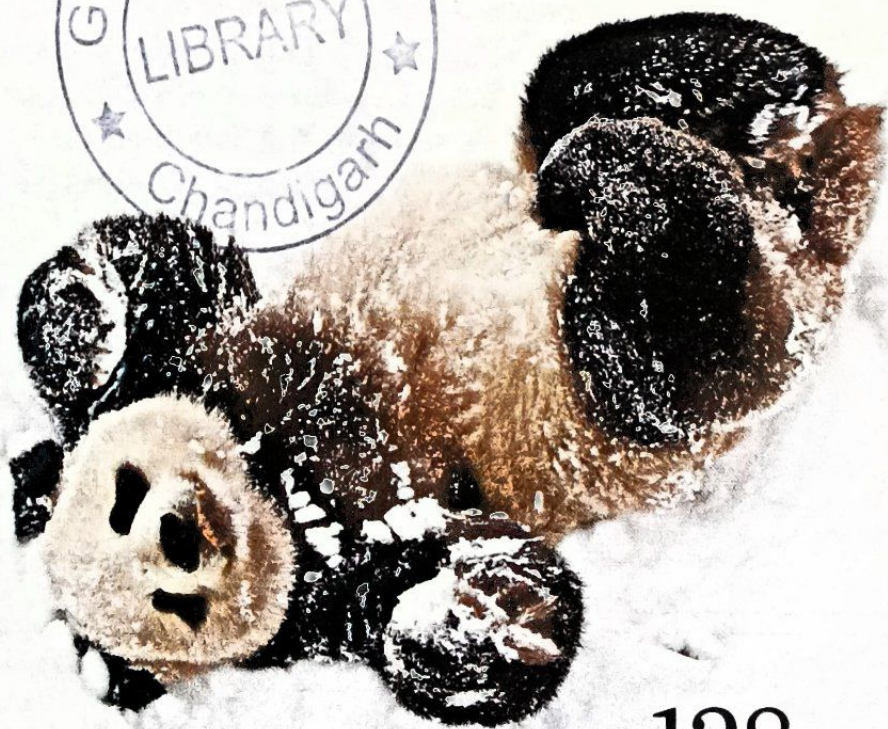

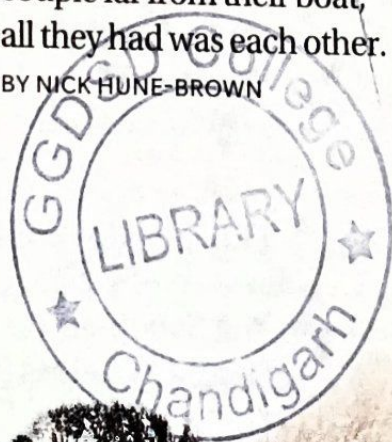

136

TRAVEL

Greece's Gift to the World

The island of Syros is eager to welcome visitors—on its own terms.

BY ROBERT KIENER

128