FEATURES IN FOCUS

50 • A MATTER OF OPINION

Will opinion trading be banned? Will the courts give their verdicts in 2025? Will these apps perish? You can place trades on any of these questions, but will that be legal?

54 • A BROADER CANVAS

Small finance banks are devising new business models and strategies to ensure growth amid the microfinance crisis. FY26 could be a decisive year for them

60 • PULLING AHEAD

Eight years after it received its licence, AU Small Finance Bank is working towards reaching the top tier in India's banking hustings

CROSS BORDER

63 • THE GREAT SPACE PHONE RACE

How billionaire Abel Avellan plans to beat Elon Musk's Starlink and Jeff Bezos's Project Kuiper by providing broadband satellite internet directly to your smartphone

66 • EXTRA TIME MK

After selling her health care company, billionaire Michele Kang has a new goal: Transforming women's sports

72 • VENTURE CAPITALISED

Investors are always encouraging startups to push the innovation envelope. General Catalyst's Hemant Taneja is applying that advice to his own firm

PG. 50

Is opinion trading a game of skill or nothing but gambling?

PG. 54

Small finance banks are looking at diversifying beyond microfinance

From left: Former India cricket captains Virat Kohli, MS Dhoni and Sourav Ganguly continue to be brand favourites

76 • TIME TO BEAT APPLE

Small value stocks haven't been doing well. But money manager Miles Lewis makes the case that at a time of turbulence on Wall Street, they are ready for a rebound

78 • MAGIC MONEY

Infinite Reality claims it raised over $3 billion from an unnamed investor. That would make it the beneficiary of one of the biggest funding rounds of the year. Not all is as it seems

FORBESLIFE

86 • RETIRED, BUT NOT OUT

Virat Kohli's recent ₹40 crore investment in Agilitas is an example of how India's cricket icons are keeping themselves relevant even after winding up their playing career
