Where do we go now?

India-US relations have reached the nadir. China, arch enemy till recently, is now a friend. Russia is an uneasy ally. As the axis turns, where does India stand in the world order?

APOLOGY REGARDING ARTICLE DATED 17TH NOVEMBER 1997

Twenty-seven years ago, the 17 November 1997 issue of Outlook Magazine published an article titled "Aaj ka Minister Goonda King of Kunda" concerning Kunwar Raghuraj Pratap Singh 'Raja Bhaiya'. We deeply regret that this article contained suggestions and expressions that may have caused significant damage to his reputation over the intervening years. The use of the term "goonda" in the headline was particularly inappropriate and created false and misleading narratives about Kunwar Raghuraj Pratap Singh 'Raja Bhaiya', which we now recognize as wholly unjustified. We acknowledge that the prolonged delay in issuing this regret may have compounded the harm caused to his standing in public life. Kunwar Raghuraj Pratap Singh 'Raja Bhaiya' has maintained a distinguished and successful political career spanning decades and remains a respected figure in national politics. Outlook Magazine expresses its deep and sincere regret to Kunwar Raghuraj Pratap Singh 'Raja Bhaiya' for the distress, anguish, injury, and reputational harm that may have been caused by the aforementioned publication and retracts the suggestions expressions and statements made in the article.
