AN EYE FOR AN EYE

COVER STORY
24

Following the deadly attack on tourists by Pakistan-sponsored terrorists, India has struck with unprecedented force. With no signs of de-escalation, it remains to be seen how long this confrontation will last. Also: How was Operation Sindoor planned?

PLUS

Ground report from border villages along the LoC

Col (retd) Nilesh Kunwar

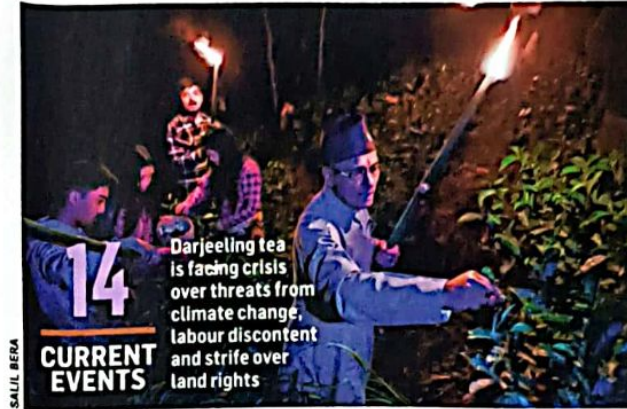

Should Gen Munir decide to escalate the situation, he would be doing so at his own peril

Gp Capt (retd) R.K. Narang

The aerial technologies will play a critical role in building deterrence

Commodore (retd) R.S. Vasan

Top military echelon in Pakistan would now factor in the element of surprise from the seas as a real threat

Our message to the world is clear. We do not seek conflict, but will not submit to terrorism. Our hand is extended in peace, but it will not tremble when forced to act. We are a civilisation rooted in compassion, but we are also a republic forged in courage and resolve.
