26 COVER STORY

LESS TRUMP, MORE XI

Xi Jinping is the biggest winner as the US foreign policy turns entirely transactional under Donald Trump. He has quickly aligned his long-term strategies with Trump's immediate requirements. India, meanwhile, is yet to devise a strategy to ease its tariff tensions with Washington or offset visa restrictions. By engaging with neighbours and regional heavyweights through people-centric and welfare-oriented projects, New Delhi can occupy the space left by China

The world often misunderstands what the sangh truly represents. It is not an organisation of exclusion but of belonging. Its emphasis on discipline is not regimentation but responsibility. Its celebration of culture is not nostalgia but continuity.
