

OPERATION SINDOOR MELTDOWN ON PAKISTAN STOCK EXCHANGE

businessstoday.in Business Today

May 25, 2025 ₹200

On Stands | Online | On Air

INSURANCE TAKEOFF

INDIA'S $130-BILLION INSURANCE INDUSTRY IS ENTERING A NEW ERA OF GROWTH, MARKED BY BIG M&As, THE EXPECTED ENTRY OF MORE FOREIGN PLAYERS, AND TECH-LED DISRUPTIONS. WHO WILL COME OUT ON TOP?

IN (05) 04/MP/2025 26 27 001 No. 33481/07 ■ ANURAG/145/2023 25 001 ■ Date of printing: Tue, Wed & Thursday

CONTENTS

May 25, 2025 | Volume 34 | Number 11

AI GENERATED BY RAHUL SHARMA

COVER STORY

42

INSURANCE TAKEOFF

INDIA'S $130-BILLION INSURANCE INDUSTRY IS ENTERING A NEW ERA OF GROWTH, MARKED BY BIG M&As, THE EXPECTED ENTRY OF MORE FOREIGN PLAYERS, AND TECH-LED DISRUPTIONS. WHO WILL COME OUT ON TOP?

COVER BY NILANJAN DAS

8 | THE POINT

Value Hunters

Despite the volatility in stock markets, promoters and institutional investors increased stakes in select BSE 500 companies

10 | THE BUZZ

India Hits Back

Pakistan's benchmark KSE-100 index crashes after India hits terror targets there and in PoK

12 | THE BUZZ

Code Red!

India Inc's business confidence, as measured by the BT-C Fore Business Confidence Survey, plunged to a 15-quarter low in Q4FY25

36 | THE BT INTERVIEW

"India is extremely strategic for us"

Stéphane de La Faverie, President & CEO of Estée Lauder Companies, on taking Forest Essentials global