On the cover

The breakthrough in Gaza marks a new beginning for the Middle East. Now a radically different kind of peacemaking is needed: leader, page 7. Israel and Hamas have agreed to the first phase of Donald Trump's peace plan: briefing, page 15

Japan's metallic maiden With Takaichi Sanae, Japan enters its heavy-metal era: leader, page 9. The new prime minister, page 19

America's fortress economics Trade and immigration restrictions are beginning to hurt America. It is just the start: leader, page 8. Donald Trump is victorious at the southern border. Will it stay closed? Page 27. Closed borders will make the country smaller, poorer and less innovative, page 64. Why Mr Trump's brutal tariffs have failed to break global trade, page 66. Soaring stocks are fuelling America's economy. That is a vulnerability: Free exchange, page 70

Canada under Carneyism To handle Trumpian America, Mark Carney wants to liberalise at home and lead a new free-trade revolution, page 33

How to protect against cyber-attacks They are afflicting businesses. How to lessen the pain: leader, page 9. For a wave of attacks, blame cleverer, nastier criminals. And bitcoin, page 58
