64 • 'SEVERAL PARENTS AND ELDERS CALL US AND SAY: ARE YOU GOING TO SIT AND WATCH PEOPLE LOSE MONEY'

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, in an interview with Network8 Group Editor-in-Chief Rahul Joshi, gave an insight into the moves in the 2026-27 Budget. We bring you some highlights from the conversation

66 • THE NUMBERS TELL A STORY

The Budget is centred around debt discipline, new sectors and domestic capabilities

68 • FUTURE FOCUS

Growth is being pursued through job generation and capacity creation, not short-term support

70 • 'GDP RESET TO CAPTURE GIG SECTOR'

Saurabh Garg, the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation secretary, on new framework to measure gig economy and digital commerce

72 • DATA AS CAPITAL

Sitharaman signals India's ambition to be a digital infra hub with expanded safe harbour rules that align data centre growth with IT and GCC needs

IN FOCUS

74 • FASTER, LEANER, SMARTER

As AI automates cognitive tasks, India's white-collar workforce faces slower hiring, higher expectations, and a growing need for deep AI capability

Canadian sprinter and twice Olympic champion Andre de Grasse was the international brand ambassador at the Tata Mumbai Marathon

World Economic Forum takes a note of AI-led workforce reductions

Fans gather for autographs from Viswanathan Anand and D Gukesh at the Tech Mahindra Global Chess League in Mumbai

80 • AI BOTS CHAT, HUMANS WATCH

As OpenClaw agents autonomously form their own social network, their abilities raise questions around security

FORBESLIFE

84 • CHECK THIS MATE

The Global Chess League, a brainchild of Anand Mahindra, has cracked the code to turn an intellectual sport into a snazzy, audience-focussed product

90 • 'I BECAME AN OLYMPIC CHAMPION ON A DARE'

Andre de Grasse on preparing for an Olympic race, his in-race smile exchange with Usain Bolt in Rio 2016, and why Bolt's right in thinking his records can't be broken

110 • A SOUND SYSTEM

As Indians pay hefty ticket prices and throng live music events in the country, infrastructure and profits are yet to match up
