On the cover

America's president wants an exit from Iran. It will not spare him from being the war's biggest loser: leader, page 7. The war in Iran has changed the Middle East—for the worse, page 14. The conflict was steadily spiralling in both scope and destruction, page 18. Contrasting George Bush senior's war with Donald Trump's is revealing, page 29. The third Gulf war will scar energy markets for a long time yet, page 61

Pakistan plays peacemaker

The troubled country has cannily managed its ties with the warring parties, page 19

Family businesses: succession dramas

A giant wave of generational change is coming for the world's family firms. Many will not survive, page 53

Hospitals after covid

They are stuck in a deadly doom loop, page 50

The parable of Kanye West

The American rapper drags every British neurosis to an absurd extreme: Bagehot, page 49
