TWO FRONTS, TWO TESTS

SANJAY AHLAWAT

18 CURRENT EVENTS

India's higher judiciary is correcting at an unprecedented pace, but frequently only after damage is done. When decisions are rushed and reversals come swiftly, public confidence becomes the casualty

WORLD

24

From Tripoli to Caracas, meddling by the US shows a steady exercise of raw power unburdened by global legal constraints

28

With the intensification of great power rivalries in the region, Greenland's strategic and resource potential has become salient

The contrasting experiences of engaging the Chinese military through dialogue and confronting Pakistan in open conflict introduced new dimensions to India's military evolution, even as they revealed gaps in the security apparatus

INTERVIEW

General Upendra Dwivedi,
Chief of the Army Staff

Self-reliance in defence technology and production is essential for endurance in prolonged military operations

We remain focused on infrastructure and capability development to preserve readiness and operational superiority

32 TAMIL NADU

The Congress is divided, with some leaders keen to move away from the DMK and test the water with Vijay's party—an exit that could backfire

36 ISRO

PSLV C-62 setback: is ISRO trying to do too much? The fact that both recent failures involve the third stage points to a recurring problem that should have been fixed after the first incident

With its sixth edition, Kochi-Muziris Biennale reclaims its legacy from the clutches of its own politics
